

CURRICULUM VITAE
Kristine Campbell, M.D., Ph.D.

Education:

B.S. Pennsylvania State University, Microbiology

M.S., Ph.D., University of Wisconsin, Bacteriology

M.D., Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine

Psychiatric Residency, Case Western Reserve, MetroHealth Medical Center

Specialty Interest:

Adult Psychiatry-individual psychotherapy, medication treatment, general mental health and sexual issues.

Professional Activities:

Department of Psychiatry Chair, Southwest General Health Center, 2003

Quality Assurance Representative, Southwest General Health Center, 1995-2002

Private practice psychiatrist, including outpatient, inpatient, chemical dependency and consultation, associated with Southwest General Health Center, 1993-2003

Associate Medical Staff, MetroHealth Medical Center, 1993-2001

Staff Psychiatrist, Inpatient Unit, MetroHealth Medical Center, 1992-1993

Senior Clinical Instructor of Psychiatry, Case Western Reserve University, 1992-2001

Clinical Science Preceptor, Case Western Reserve School of Medicine, 1991-1992

Chief Resident of Psychiatry, MetroHealth Medical Center, 1991-1992

Board Certification in Psychiatry

Meninger Award from the Central Neuropsychiatric Association

Published works:

Campbell K and Schubert D: Reversal of delirium associated with essential thrombocythemia by anti-platelet therapy. Psychosomatics, 1992, 33:213-215.

Campbell K and Schubert D: Delirium after cessation of glucocorticoid therapy
General Hospital Psychiatry, 1990, 13: 270-272.